

AMENDING THE CHARTER OF THE WOODMONT ASSOCIATION.

Resolved by this Assembly: That section one of the resolution revising the charter of the Woodmont Association, approved June 18, 1903, is hereby amended by striking out, commencing with the ninth line, the words " northerly at right angles to said bridge until the line reaches a point two hundred feet northerly of the northerly side of the highway in which said bridge is located; thence southwesterly, parallel to and two hundred feet distant from said highway" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "westerly along the boundary line between the towns of Milford and Orange to the northwesterly line of the layout of the West Shore Railway Company; thence along said line of layout of said company," and by striking out in the eighteenth and nineteenth lines of said section the words "a clump of large trees" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "the southwesterly line of the new street extending from said Merwin avenue to the foot of Mark street on the shore," so that said section as amended shall read as follows: That all of the electors of this state, who are taxpayers in the town of Milford, and who have been domiciled for one month during the year last past in the town of Milford, and within the territory included within the following limits, to wit: All that territory in said town of Milford, on the shore of Long Island sound, bounded northerly and westerly by a line beginning at a point in the center of the bridge over Oyster river, near the property of the Rev. Dr. Anderson; thence from said bridge westerly along the boundary line between the towns of Milford and Orange to the northwesterly line of the layout of the West Shore Railway Company; thence along said line of layout of said company to the northerly side of Chapel street, near the house of John W. Merwin; thence westerly, along the northerly side of Chapel street, to a point opposite the westerly line of the Woodmont chapel property; thence southerly across said Chapel street along land of said chapel society; thence southeasterly along land of said chapel society to Merwin avenue, thence southerly along the westerly side of said Merwin avenue to the southwesterly line of the new street extending from said Merwin avenue to the foot of Mark street on the shore; thence southwesterly in a straight line to the top of Barrel rock, so-called, to the southerly boundary line of the town of Milford; thence northeasterly along the southerly line of said town to the boundary line between the towns of Milford and Orange; and thence continue, northerly along the boundary line between said towns to the point of beginning, are hereby declared to be, and shall forever continue to be, a body politic and corporate, within said town of Milford, by the name of the Woodmont Association, and by that name they and their successors shall have perpetual succession and shall be a person in law, capable of suing and being sued, and pleading and being impleaded in all courts of whatsoever nature, and also of purchasing, holding, and conveying any estate, real or personal, necessary for the purposes of said association; and shall have a common seal and may change and alter the same at pleasure.

Approved, July 5, 1907.