Approval of Minutes

The Board reviewed and approved the July 18, 2022 minutes with one edit.

Freeholders I

Maggie Mundy- Farina, Bonsilene St, inquired about possible solutions for water pooling at the bottom of Bonsilene St. Possible solutions were discussed including straightening the curb, storm drain. Burgess Rockwell asked Jim Mallico to create a proposal to fix the issue as a next step.

Report of the Tax Collector:

Liens and taxes have been sent.

Report of the Warden:

1. Input is needed from each board member for some bullet points to help me build the state of the Borough. I don't need a dissertation just bullets to help remind me.
2. Woodmont Day seemed a success. Burgess Bihary, Constable Bozso and Clerk Flynn agreed there were no real incidents to report and overall a great day was had. Further info in the Constable Report.
3. I would like to welcome Sue Hunt back to the Borough and thank her for stepping up and volunteering to take over Borough Beautification. She is looking for other volunteers to help her!
4. Kit and I are working on the proposed 2023-24 Borough budget request and will have it ready for the next meeting for board approval. Then, subsequently, the Annual Meeting on the August 25th for Freeholder approval.
5. Wording needs to be updated on the tax letter to have the correct payment information, it is still saying office hours to pay which is incorrect.
6. E&D and Mallico completed the Rosa Rugous project along the beach. The beachline was weeded and bocce court cleaned.
